
DPM 2009

Workshop History

- Continuation of the International Workshop on Privacy Data Management
 - Three previous issues
 - 2005 in Tokyo, Japan;
 - 2006 in Atlanta, USA;
 - 2007 in Istanbul, Turkey
- One year of inactivity
- Retaken in this 2009 in France, co-located with the ESORICS conference
- Plans are to continue the workshop on a yearly base

Workshop Figures

- Submissions from 13 countries (4 continents)
- Post-proceedings will be published in Springer's LNCS (with SETOP)
- Two Invited Speakers
 - Tomas Sander, (Systems Security Lab, Hewlett-Packard Labs, Princeton)
 - Josep Domingo-Ferrer (Rovira i Virgili University, UNESCO Chair in Data Privacy).

Workshop Sponsors

- UNESCO Chair in Data Privacy
- ARES
 - Advanced Research on Information Security and Privacy
- E-AEGIS
 - Electronic AEGIS for conciliating consumer privacy and transaction security in the Information Society
- IIIA/CSIC
 - Artificial Intelligence Research Institute, Spanish National Research Council
- UOC/IN3
 - Open University of Catalonia, Internet Interdisciplinary Institute
- IEEE Spanish section

DPM2009

DPM 2009
